P—Provisional

(b) Government have taken a number of measures to bolster the foreign currency assets of the country and the FE reserves have now attained a comfortable level. This has inspired confidence among NRI investors which is evidenced by the reversal of the trend of outflows to net inflow in January, 1992.

Expansion of Income tax net

120. SHRI RAJ MOHAN GANDHI: Will the Minister of FIANANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a large percentage of professionals and traders escape the income tax net;

(b) if so, what is the estimated percentage of professionals and traders escaping the tax net at present; and

(c) what steps have been taken or are being considered for bringing them within the tax net?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI RAMESHWAR THAKUR): (a) to (c) The Government is continually striving to bring all persons having taxable income within the tax net. For this purpose, the Income Tax Department undertakes surveys under section 133B of the Income-tax Act. Further, information is collected and verified through the Central Information Branches and other enquiries are also made to identify potential taxpayers. Despite these efforts by the Income Tax Department, some persons with taxable income may still escape the tax net. However, in the absence of any definite data-base with regard to the total number of professinals and traders in the country earning taxable income, it may not be possible to arrive at the percentage of such persons escaping the tax net.
